since im detoxing and my head is becoming clearer, its time for me to dive into this book! its a self-reflective book! you write into it with all honesty about yourself and the people around you and the ways you could change or help certain situations! its a book of self-control and discipline! highly recommend! 🙌

Stop confusing temporary happiness for long-term connection! There are some people that came into your life that is just there for the moment but everyone deserves your inside story or all of your commitment and loyalty and not everyone is meant to be placed in that, some are literally in your life just for good vibes or a channel to heal through! Always be there in peoples life and please people where they should be in yours and don't force anything extra! 🙌🙌🙌 staying strong! 🙌🙌 Remember, it is not a "mistake" for someone to treat you in a way they wouldn't want to be treated! if they cared about you enough those actions wouldn't have even crossed their mind! 🙌
